Claim 23 is objected to as having no clear meaning.

Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 14, 23 (as far as understood), 24, 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Renji (Japan 09226476). Renji discloses an automobile molding provided with:

- a molding main body M with a design face, which will face the outside, and a reverse face M1 which will face the car body side, when the molding is attached to the car body
- a fastener holder 41 which is formed on the reverse face M1 of the molding body M
- a fastener 42 which is held in place by the fastener holder 41 to fasten the molding main body M to the car body 20
- the fastener holder 42 is provided with at least two lateral walls 43 projecting up from the reverse face of the molding main body to form sides of the fastener holder
- an opening 58 maintained on one side the fastener holder
- a fastener mounting seat, perpendicular to side walls 43, and connects to the lateral or side walls to define a housing space which will permit a base plate 59 of the fastener to be inserted and engage and stop portions, adjacent ref. no.53, formed in the lateral walls 43 that are adjacent said opening 58

- the fastener 42 is provided with an engaging portion 55 which projects upright from the base plate 59 and is configured to engage in a mounting hole in the car body
- a pair of extending elastic pieces 61/62 having protruding portions 64
- the elastic pieces 61/62 extend from the base plate 59 and engages with the fastener holder 41 to secure the fastener 42 thereto, the projecting ends 64 being free;
- an insertion groove/opening 53 in the fastener mounting seat of the fastener holder 41
- the end 64 of the engaging portion projecting outwardly from the base plate being inserted into the insertion groove 53
- the protruding portions that project out from the elastic pieces can engage with the engage stop portions of the portions that are formed in the lateral walls that are adjacent to the opening 53 of the fastener holder in a releasable manner on the housing space on the inside of the housing space defined at reference number 53; again, one of the opening in the housing space is defined by the space shown at reference number 53

Art Unit: 3635

- the protruding portions 64 on the opposite sides of the base plate; each protruding portion capable of coming into contact with a fastener mounting seat on either side of the insertion groove/opening 53; this groove/ opening is on an inside portion of the housing.
- the base plate and the elastic pieces 61 are capable of being inserted into the housing space inside the fastener holder via an opening that is formed at one end of the fastener holder
- the engaging portion 55/56 is provided with a trunk 55 upright from a base 59
- engaging claws 56 which are formed to the end of the trunk which project from the base plate

Claims 1-13, 18-22 are allowable over the prior art of record.

Claim 15-17, 26-28 are objected to as depending upon a rejected base claim but would be considered as allowable if amended to include the base claim and any intervening claims.
